

Know Your Health Care Eligible and Ineligible Expenses

Your Health Care Flexible Spending Account (FSA) or Health Savings Account (HSA) dollars can be used for a variety of out-of-pocket health care expenses that qualify as federal income tax deductions under Section 213(d) of the Internal Revenue Code ("IRC").

- Health Care FSA and HSA dollars can be used to reimburse you for medical and dental expenses incurred by you, your spouse or eligible dependents (children, siblings, parents and other dependents which are defined in your Plan Documents).

IMPORTANT: The IRS defines which medical expenses are eligible under a tax-deferred account. Not all expenses are eligible under all plans. If you are unsure of what your dollars may be used for, please contact your Plan Administrator.

Here is a sample list of expenses currently eligible and not eligible by the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") as deductible medical expenses. This list is not necessarily inclusive or exclusive, and may be subject to change based on regulations, IRS revenue rulings and case law. It is solely based on our current interpretation of IRC Section 213(d) and is not intended to be legal advice.

For a complete up-to-date list of eligible products and services, please refer to IRC Section 213(d).
